

Cancellation/No Show Policy

The Travel Inn seeks to offer all its guests the best service. Online bookings receive an automatic confirmation with conditions of booking. Bookings made with more than 7 days lead in will, on request, receive either an e-mail or a letter of confirmation of the reservation with conditions of booking. Reservations made within 7 days of arrival will, upon request, receive an e-mail confirmation of booking.

Regretably should you have to cancel your Accommodation Reservation within a 48hr period of arrival the Travel Inn will have to place a charge of the first night accommodation on the guarantee of booking. The Travel Inn will make every effort to fill these cancelled rooms at short notice. Should the hotel successfully re-sell these rooms within this 48hr period we will then not place any charge on your guarantee method.

Should any guest fail to show for the first night of their reservation, and fail to contact the hotel, the reservation will be released and the hotel will treat this release the same as a cancelled room.

Any queries on the Hotel policies may be directed to Sheila Casey, Front Office Manager or Fionnbar Walsh, General Manager
